

NELLY KORDA WINS 60TH HARDER HALL WOMEN'S INVITATIONAL

On another beautiful, partly sunny and cool day, 16-year old Nelly Korda overtook Wake Forest University Senior Allison Emrey to win the 60th Harder Hall Women's Invitational by three shots. Korda, of Bradenton, FL, made three birdies in the last five holes to shoot three-under 69, for a total of 291 (+3). Emrey finished 2nd after a final round 75, followed by Samantha Wagner of Orlando, FL, who posted the only other under-par round today with a 71.

In the Forever Forty-Nine Division Lisa Schlesinger of Laytonsville, MD, shot a final round 78, for a 317 total to overtake third-round leader Martha Leach by two shots

The Ben Roman Division, which concluded Friday after three rounds, Pat Hughes-Gelardi of Palm Beach Gardens, FL captured the title in the Marge Burns Flight by one stroke over Clate Aydlett with a three-round total score of 260. Other flight winners include: Tish Preuss Flight, Mary Rhodes - 266; Lancy Smith Flight, Teresa Hudson - 288.
